<sup>1</sup> Students choose to do a significant research or service-learning project related to the topic of gender studies in a 200-level course or above in the student's major field of study. Students apply to complete the project at the beginning of the semester, subject to approval by the Gender Studies program co-coordinators. Students may not tag a course listed in the minor's elective categories. Courses whose number is followed by a letter fulfill a General Education requirement.
