

DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

In order to be awarded a degree or certificate, students must complete all of the specific requirements outlined for each degree or program type.

- Associate of Arts Degree Requirements (<https://catalog.bethel.edu/adult-professional-studies/academic-information/general-education-requirements-associate-arts-degree/>)
- Associate of Science Degree Requirements (<https://catalog.bethel.edu/adult-professional-studies/academic-information/general-education-requirements-associate-science-degree/>)
- Bachelor of Arts Degree Requirements (<https://catalog.bethel.edu/adult-professional-studies/academic-information/general-education-core-requirements-bachelor-arts-degree/>)
- Bachelor of Science Degree Requirements (<https://catalog.bethel.edu/adult-professional-studies/academic-information/general-education-core-requirements-bachelor-science-degree/>)
- Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) Degree Requirements (<https://catalog.bethel.edu/adult-professional-studies/academic-information/general-education-core-requirements-bachelor-science-nursing-degree/>)
- Certificate Program Requirements (<https://catalog.bethel.edu/adult-professional-studies/academic-information/general-requirements-certificate/>)

Program of Study

For associate's degrees, program of study includes the graduation requirements for an associate's degree and any additional majors declared by the student.

For bachelor's degrees, program of study includes the graduation requirements for a bachelor's degree as well as additional majors, minors, concentrations, and certificates declared by the student. Required Foundations of Math Readiness courses are also included.

For certificates, program of study includes the graduation requirements for all declared certificates.